MORRISVILLE AND HYDE PARK. L. H. LEWIS, EDITOR.

The colored man who is industrious and frugal is doing more to solve the race problem than all of the writers and speakers in the country.

The last survivor of the "War Governors," Alexander Ramsey, of Minnesota, died last week at St. Paul. He was Secretary of War in the Cabinet of President Hays and served two terms in the United States Sen-

The good roads movement is receiving attention in many of the states and legislative action has been taken by several. Pennsylvania, however, leads all the rest by appropriating six and a half millions for highway improvements.

Senator Hanna in a vigorous speech on the labor question last Wednesday criticised certain utterances recently made on that subject before the American Manufacturers' Association at New Orleans. The Senator stands for cordial relations between employer and employed and enjoys the esteem of both sides.

To jail for the hundred and seventeenth time is the record of John Shannon of Rutland. This is the greatest record in Vermont and probably anywhere else. Shannon ought to be more at home in jail than out with that number of introductions. A life sentence might not only be beneficial to John, but would be a great saving of time and money in the way of trials and commitments.

The operation performed by Dr. Lorenz on little Lolita Armour, daughter of the Chicago millionaire, for congenital hip dislocation, has been pronounced a success by the renowned Austrian champion of bloodless surgery. It is highly probable that the fee for his work, which will be in the form of a gift, will be ample to keep the wolf from the doctor's door for the remainder of his days.

Taking a long look ahead, friends of the President say that the Presidency of Harvard University would be a suitable position for him after he leaves the White House. Detroit Republicans are moving to secure the holding of the National Rebublican convention next year in their city. St. Louis, with its great exhibition, will make a strong effort to capture both conventions. Yet it is said the indications favor the selection of Chicago for both. Th Garden City, sometimes styled the Windy City, offers facilities for such gatherings that are not approached elsewhere.

Andrew Carnegie shows his interest in Booker Washington and Tuskagee university by giving outright to it the sum of $600,000. No restriction ordered William Tell to practice archis made as to the disposition of the ery. "Sure I do," said the lawyer, funds other than that Mr. Washington is to have a sufficient sum for his personal use and be thereby enabled to give his whole time to theinstitution that he has so much at heart. It is now in order for Pitchfork Tilman to again express his contempt for the "Nigger lovers."

Forty-six German experts in agriculture are coming to this country to study American farming methods and stock raising. They will stay two months and travel tenthousand miles in this home of agricultural enterprise and prosperity. They will be made welcome and afforded every facility for the fulfilment of their peaceful mission, and will, it is believed, be able to carry home with them lessons that will promote the welfare of the farming element of the Fatherland's population.

The original draft of the Declaration of Independence has become so faded that it is no longer safe to exhibit it in public or expose it to the light. So itisto be locked up in a fire and light proof safe and the American people are to see it no more. However, there is no danger whatever of the Declaration fading from the pages of Gov. McCullough and staff, with our congressional delegation and a few others, have gone to St. Louis to attend the centennial of the Louisiana purchase. Vermont will not be represented by any great array of military and brass bands, but no state will have a more level-headed and common-sense delegation at that event than the Green Mountain State. Vermont might have made an appropriation for a lavish expenditure of wisely she did not.

Canada is loyal to the mother country, no doubt, but the loyalty does not prevent the Canadians from driving a large trade with the manufacturers and mine owners of this country. A statement of Canadian commerce just received by the Bureau of Statistics at Washington, covering the seven months ending with January, shows that Canada imported from the United Statesduring that time $67,000,000 worth ofmerchandise, against $32,000,000 worth from the United Kingdom, and $21,-000,000 worth from all other parts of the world. In other words, the United States supplied 56 per cent. of the imports by Canada in the seven months, the United Kingdom supplied 27 per cent, and the remaining portion of the world 17 per cent.

Philadelphia is a learned town, but sometimes her inhabitants make funny mistakes. A German lawyer was trying a case before Judge Andenried there the other day, and the name of Gesler was brought into the case. The lawyer could not get it right and finally the judge asked him if he did not remember the tyrant who 'Is this der man?"
